

0 C T T s s T S T S

A

2009-10 2012-13

J. Hunt

On October 1, 2009, the Auditor General of Canada was appointed to the position of Auditor General for the 2009-2010 fiscal year. The Auditor General is responsible for auditing the accounts of the Government of Canada and for reporting to Parliament on the results of the audits.

The Auditor General's office is located in Ottawa, Ontario. The office is organized into several departments, including the Department of the Auditor General, the Department of the Controller General, and the Department of the Inspector General of the Environment and Sustainable Development. The Auditor General's office has a long history of providing independent and objective audits of the Government of Canada's operations.

The Auditor General's office has a budget of approximately $397,160,000 (8.9 billion dollars) for the 2009-2010 fiscal year. The Auditor General's office is responsible for auditing the accounts of the Government of Canada and for reporting to Parliament on the results of the audits. The Auditor General's office is also responsible for auditing the accounts of the provinces and territories.

The Auditor General's office is also responsible for auditing the accounts of the provinces and territories. The Auditor General's office has a long history of providing independent and objective audits of the Government of Canada's operations. The Auditor General's office is also responsible for auditing the accounts of the provinces and territories.

The Auditor General's office is also responsible for auditing the accounts of the provinces and territories. The Auditor General's office has a long history of providing independent and objective audits of the Government of Canada's operations. The Auditor General's office is also responsible for auditing the accounts of the provinces and territories.

The Auditor General's office is also responsible for auditing the accounts of the provinces and territories. The Auditor General's office has a long history of providing independent and objective audits of the Government of Canada's operations. The Auditor General's office is also responsible for auditing the accounts of the provinces and territories.

The Auditor General's office is also responsible for auditing the accounts of the provinces and territories. The Auditor General's office has a long history of providing independent and objective audits of the Government of Canada's operations. The Auditor General's office is also responsible for auditing the accounts of the provinces and territories.

The...
T... -0...
10... M 2009 9.2 M 2010.

P...
GDP... 4.3... 2010...
... T... s... s... s... s...

As...
2008-2009... 2010, ...
... s... 12.2... 2010.

Respect for Aboriginal culture, tradition and individuals

Okanagan College is committed to respecting the diverse cultures, traditions, and languages of all individuals. We strive to create an inclusive environment where everyone can thrive and succeed.

Okanagan College's Key Directions

Okanagan College's key directions are focused on providing high-quality education and training to our students. We are committed to continuous improvement and innovation in our programs and services. Our key directions include:

- Enhancing the quality of teaching and learning
- Supporting student success and well-being
- Advancing research and scholarship
- Engaging with the community
- Ensuring financial sustainability

Okanagan College Goals & Objectives

B. STUDENT SUCCESS

Number of students in O.C. 2009-10
 27,053 (2009-10,
 1,616)

Library success rate (93.5%
 2009-2010, 84% 2008-09
 success rate), success rate
 success rate (84.9%
 2009-10, 79.7% 2008-09)

First-time success rate O.C.
 97.6% success rate
 91.8% success rate

Employment success rate (93.1%
 success rate, success rate
 96.4% success rate)

Student Success Awards, Transfer Awards
 success rate success rate
 success rate O.C. Awards 2009-2010 2008-2009

F. CULTURAL AND SOCIAL DIVERSITY

Strategic Objective 23, OSTECC
Support and enhance the college's commitment to cultural and social diversity
through the following actions:

P U :

Centre of Excellence in Sustainable Building Technologies and Renewable Energy
Conservation – completion March 2011
Salmon Arm Trades Training Facility – Completion August 2010

P , E P , S :

Kelowna Trades Expansion

