Term Work

Your term work grade may be calculated from a combination of quizzes, meetings with your professor, participation, in-class work, and homework. Your professor will explain this component of your grade during the first week of classes. There is a direct correlation between attendance in class and a good academic grade. It is highly recommended that students read text materials before classes. Any work missed as a result of failure to attend class is the responsibility of the student.

Term Project

The term project will be discussed during the first weeks of class. An electronic copy and/or a hard copy of the project must be submitted (Check with your professor for specifics).

There will be penalties for work submitted late. These penalties will be up to the discretion of the professor. All materials submitted for grading must be professionally presented and WILL be marked for spelling and grammar as well as content.

Mid-term Exam

The mid-term exam will be utilize different question types including multiple choice questions, true/false/why questions, short and long-answer questions. These will be based on both the text and topics covered in class.

Final Exam

The format of the final will be similar to the mid-term with some comprehensive application case type questions. The majority of the questions will be based on material covered after the mid-term exam.

Students have a responsibility to read the OC Plagiarism Policy and Procedures outlined in the OC calendar, which is available in online format www.okanagan.bc.ca. Students must acknowledge the sources of information used on all their assignments, in which you used the material, then at the end of your paper, writing out the complete references in a Reference section.

Avoided; Taking

This guide is available in OC bookstores and libraries.

Plagiarism

Students are expected to understand research and writing techniques and documentation styles. The Okanagan School of Business requires the use of the APA or MLA style, but suggests that students cite references using the APA guidelines (see Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association, 6th edition (2009)). A copy of the APA manual is available in the reference section and also available for circulation from OC libraries. The library website has access to these two major citing styles.

What are the Penalties for Plagiarism and Cheating?

The Okanagan School of Business does not tolerate plagiarism or cheating. All professors actively check for plagiarism and cheating and the Okanagan School of Business subscribes to an electronic plagiarism detection service. All incidents of plagiarism or cheating are reported and result in a formal letter of reprimand outlining the nature of the infraction, the evidence and the penalty. The Dean of the Okanagan School of Business and the Registrar record and monitor all instances of plagiarism and cheating. Penalties for plagiarism and cheating reflect the seriousness and circumstances of the offence and the range of penalties includes suspension from OC.
