Course Objectives

This course will cover the following content:

See course schedule

Evaluation Procedure

Term Work (Quizzes, Presentation, Participation)	15%
Paper	10%
Mid-term Exam	35%
Final Exam	40%
Total	100%

NotesFinal Exam

Students must obtain a mark of 50% or more on the Final Exam in order to pass this course.

Course Work

All assignments are due the lecture immediately following completion of the material covered by the homework assignment. Assignments that are not submitted on time will be assigned a mark of zero, unless a medical certificate is filed with the professor.

Missed progress tests and final exam will not be rescheduled without a medical certificate or other supporting documents. Inconvenience to the student is not a valid reason for missing a scheduled exam

Use of Moodle in This Course

We will be using Moodle in this course. It will be used for posting course overheads, guided writing exercises and solutions, sending emails to the professor, and posting quiz and review solutions. If available electronically, assignment solutions will also be posted.

Assigned Readings

This course covers a considerable amount of material during the semester. Students are expected to do the assigned readings in advance of class and be prepared to discuss areas of difficulty and to participate in discussions in class.

Class sessions will consist of lectures, case studies and discussion. The classes will be interactive, with students working through the cases, developing investigative strategies, and seeking to prove how the fraud was committed.

SKILLS ACROSS THE BUSINESS CURRICULUM

The Okanagan School of Business promotes core skills across the curriculum. These skills include reading, written and oral communications, computers, small business, and academic standards of ethics, honesty and integrity.

STUDENT CONDUCT AND ACADEMIC HONESTY

What is the Disruption of Instructional Activities?

At Okanagan College (OC), disruption of instructional activities includes student “conduct which interferes with examinations, lectures, seminars, tutorials, group meetings, other related activities, and with students using the study facilities of OC”, as well as conduct that leads to property damage, assault, discrimination, harassment and fraud. Penalties for disruption of instructional activities include a range of sanctions from a warning and/or a failing grade on an assignment, examination or course to suspension from OC.
